PERSONALISING LEARNING

A teacher has a professional responsibility to understand where each of their students are at, and what they need to do to fulfil their potential. This challenging but practical course will look at how teachers can meet this challenge and use many of the tools available to them to ensure success. Delegates will take away document proformas that have been used across the world to manage the process of personalised learning.

COURSE CONTENT

- Baselineing as a first step – you have to know the starting point
- Individual learning plans – a map not a task
- Challenging the most able
- Challenging the least able
- Using students as a resource in personalisation
- Multi assessment tasks to guarantee inclusivity

THIS COURSE CAN ALSO BE RUN IN SCHOOL FOR ALL RELEVANT STAFF.
