COURSE REF
1725

CRITICAL THINKING 101

Critical Thinking is both a competence and a skill. It is both an ability and a set of behaviours. This course is aimed at teachers who wish to develop the ability to critically think in their learners. This competence is crucial to student led learning activities and, in some occasions, offers less academically able children the opportunity to shine. Delegates will be shown example processes and activities that enable students of all ages to develop critical thinking skills and amaze you.

COURSE CONTENT

- The foundations for critical thinking in lessons
- 'Safe space' methodology – getting it wrong is good
- Developing reflection in learners' thought
- Assessment when the outcome is unexpected
- Being amazed – the teacher's conundrum

THIS COURSE CAN ALSO BE RUN IN SCHOOL FOR ALL RELEVANT STAFF.
